54. After a motion has been moved, it is the property of Council or Council Committee and may not be withdrawn, modified or substituted without majority consent.
55. Members may give permission by majority vote to withdraw, modify or substitute any motion at the request of the mover before the motion has been voted on.
56. A motion that is withdrawn has the same effect as if it had never been made. After the motion is withdrawn, a member may introduce a new motion for consideration.
57. A member may require the motion under discussion to be read at any time during debate, except when another member is speaking.
58. When a motion is under debate, no other motion will be received other than a motion to:

AMENDMENT TO A MOTION

63. All amendments must relate to the matter dealt with in the main motion and will not substantially alter the motion as to change its intent or meaning.
64. Only one amendment to a motion may be before the meeting at any time, except for an amendment to an amendment. An amendment to an amendment must be voted on before the first amendment.
65. An amendment to an amendment must be relevant to the first amendment.
66. When a motion to amend is passed, the main motion will be amended accordingly.
67. Following the completion of all amendments, the main motion, as amended, will be put to a vote.

SPLITTING MOTIONS

68. A member may request that a motion be divided if it contains parts that stand as complete propositions. Council and Council Committee must then vote separately on each proposition.

TABLING

69. A motion to table takes precedence over all other motions connected with the motion being tabled.
70. Debate may occur regarding the merits of tabling a matter.
71. Any member may move to take a motion from the table, provided no other motion is on the floor.
72. A tabled matter is brought back with all of the motions connected with it, exactly as it was when it was laid on the table.
73. The motion to take from the table is not debatable or amendable and requires only a majority vote.
74. If the tabling motion does not include the date of the meeting to which the tabled matter is to be brought forward, it will be brought forward to the subsequent meeting.
75. If a matter is not taken from the table within one year after the date that it was tabled, the matter is considered withdrawn and is null and void. Tabled motions relating to bylaw readings are not subject to this section because the provisions of Section 188 of the Act prevail.

RESCINDING MOTIONS

76. A motion to rescind a previous motion may be accepted by the Chair and, if passed by a majority vote of the members present, the previous motion referred to is declared null and void.

79. Debate on a motion for reconsideration must be confined to reasons for or against reconsideration.
80. Reconsideration may then be debated (provided the motion proposed to be reconsidered was debatable) and voted upon, and requires a majority vote of the members present.
81. If a motion to reconsider is approved, the motion to be reconsidered is the next order of business (i.e., the motion to be reconsidered will precede the next item on the agenda), unless the motion defers reconsideration to a future meeting date. Debate on the matter resumes as though it had not previously been voted upon.

82. A motion that has been approved for reconsideration and passes automatically suspends the original motion.

NOTICE OF MOTION

83. A Notice of Motion may be presented and described prior to the closing of the meeting by the member reading the Notice of Motion, which will then be recorded in the minutes and will form part of the agenda for the subsequent meeting or meeting date stated in the notice.

84. A member who submits a written Notice of Motion to the CAO, to be read at a meeting, need not be present during the reading of the notice.

85. If a motion is not made at the meeting indicated in the notice, it will appear on the agenda for, and may be made at any of, the next two regular meetings. After the third regular meeting, it will be removed from the agenda and may only be made by a new Notice of Motion.

86. A Notice of Motion must give sufficient detail so that the subject of the motion and any proposed action can be determined, and it must state the date of the meeting at which the motion will be made. A notice must be given without discussion of the matter, but any written copies distributed may include explanatory statements.

VOTING

87. Calling the Question

- (1) When the Chair ascertains that no further information is required or debated forthcoming on a motion, the Chair will immediately submit the motion to a vote of the members (i.e., call the question), and no further discussion will take place until the vote has been completed.

- (1) Any member who fails to vote will be recorded as having voted in affirmative unless a statute expressly allows or requires an abstention.

93. Loss of Quorum (Abstention)

- (1) If a motion cannot be voted on because there would be no quorum due to the abstention allowed or required by statute, then the matter will be dealt with as unfinished business and proceeded with at the next regular meeting of Council or Council Committee.

94. Recorded Votes

- (1) At meetings of Council-in-Whole, the voting of motions that are not unanimous shall be recorded by showing the names of the members present and whether each member voted for or against the motion, or abstained.
