

Nutsedge, Yellow
Cyperus esculentus
Cyperaceae (Sedge Family)

Category:

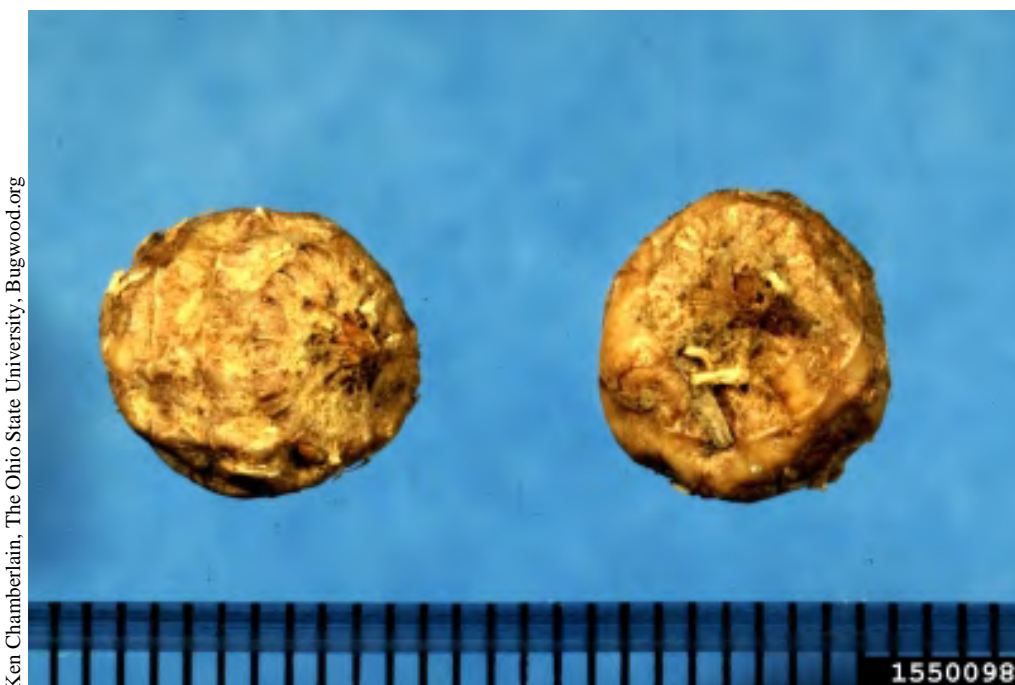

Prohibited Noxious

John Cardina, The Ohio State University, Bugwood.org

Steve Dewey, Utah State University, Bugwood.org

Ken Chamberlain, The Ohio State University, Bugwood.org

Ken Chamberlain, The Ohio State University, Bugwood.org

- Information: Native to North America, not hardy in cold climates.
- Life Cycle: Perennial.
- Root: Creeping, fibrous roots, reproductive tubers.
- Leaves: Alternate, grass-like, waxy.
- Stems: Triangular stem (3 sided).
- Flower: Umbrella shaped cluster, male and female flowers.
- Seed/Fruits: Many new plants arise from underground roots, viable seed 50%.
- Toxicity:
- Control: Do not cultivate.