

BY-LAW 16-99
ASSESSMENT APPEALS AND COMPLAINTS

BEING A BY-LAW OF PARKLAND COUNTY TO APPLY PART 1 OF THE ASSESSMENT COMPLAINTS AND APPEALS REGULATION 55/99 TO THOSE COMPLAINTS AND APPEALS FOR THE 1999 TAXATION YEAR.

WHEREAS the Assessment Complaints and Appeals Regulation 55/99, hereinafter referred to as "The Regulation", establishes the procedure and evidence requirements for property assessment appeals; and

WHEREAS The Regulation applies to a complaint, supplementary complaint or appeal concerning the 1999 taxation year only where a municipality passes a by-law providing that Part 1 applies to those complaints and appeals in place of Part 2 and gives notice of that by-law to the Minister, the Assessment Review Board and the Municipal Government Board; and

WHEREAS The Regulation will benefit all complainants by providing a consistent format for presentation of the information supporting their complaint, supplementary complaint or appeal; and

WHEREAS The Regulation will encourage clarification and discussion of the assessment issue between the complainant and the assessor, prior to the Assessment Review Board Hearing; and

WHEREAS The Regulation will minimize blanket assessment appeals on properties due to the collection and reporting requirements of the appeal procedure.

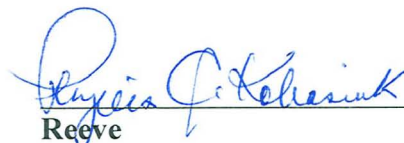

NOW THEREFORE under the authority of the Municipal Government Act and the Assessment Complaints and Appeals Regulation 55/99, the Council of Parkland County, in the province of Alberta, enacts:

- 1. That Part 1 of the Assessment Appeals and Complaints Regulation 55/99 apply to those complaints and appeals in place of Part 2 of The Regulation for the 1999 taxation year; and
- 2. That notice of this by-law is given to the Minister of Municipal Affairs, the Assessment Review Board and the Municipal Government Board.
- 3. That this by-law shall take effect on the date of the third and final reading.
